

Living Plan – Life Builder “Living on Purpose!”

How often will people plan months in advance for a wedding and weeks for a vacation, but never take a few hours to plan out the rest of their life?

You have one opportunity at life. To make sure you are living life to the fullest and without regret, it is important to make regular, if not daily deposits into the life accounts you value the most.

Set aside a few hours of uninterrupted time to talk, pray and ponder about what you want your life to look like in twenty years and how you plan to get there.

1. Where I am in Life and Success Today.

(Take a few moments to write out your epitaph, what you want your dearest friends and loved ones to say and remember you by at your funeral.)

What will they remember about me? (No more than 10 short descriptive sentences on how you want to be remembered.)
